Subject: City of Fresno Housing Element Annual Progress Report

Dear Mr. Deems:

In accordance with Government Code Section 65400, the City of Fresno is submitting the enclosed Housing Element Annual Progress Report as a true and correct representation of the City's efforts made during 2012 to fulfill its Housing Element objectives.

The report is organized as follows:

- Annual Building Activity Report – New Construction (Table A);
- Annual Building Activity Report – Units Rehabilitated, Preserved and Acquired Pursuant to GC Section 65583.1(c)(1) (Table A2);
- Regional Housing Allocation Needs Progress (Table B);
- Program Implementation Status (Table C); and
- Contact Information sheet

During the report period, City staff continued to work diligently to execute programs as outlined in the Housing Element and to meet the housing needs for all segments of the community.

If you have any questions regarding the report, please contact John Robertson, Interim Housing and Community Development Division Manager, at (559) 621-8518.

Sincerely,

Renena Smith

Program Implementation Status

Program Description (By Housing Element Program Names)	Housing Programs Progress Report - Government Code Section 65583. Describe progress of all programs including local efforts to remove governmental constraints to the maintenance, improvement, and development of housing as identified in the housing element.
Name of Program	Objective	Timeframe in H.E.	Status of Program Implementation
Implementation of General Plan 1.1.1	Create a range of housing opportunities	2013	The Fresno Green Development Code, General Plan Update and Master Environmental Impact Report program was initiated July 1, 2009, and is on schedule to be completed and adopted by July 2013. It will provide considerable additional opportunities for medium-high (16 to 18 dwelling units per acre) and high (43 dwelling units per acre) residential development in close proximity to public transit and employment opportunities. The updated Development Code provisions will establish prezoned areas with Master Environmental Impact Report clearance to accommodate the development of at least 25,112 multiple family dwelling units as identified by Amendment No. 1 to the 2008-2013 Housing Element, as amended by SB 375.
Implementation of General Plan 1.1.1.a	Complete activity center	2010	Included as an urban form component of Fresno Green Development Code, General Plan Update and Master Environmental Impact Report Program (see status in 1.1.1 above).
Implementation of General Plan 1.1.1.b	Adopt form based code/update zoning ordinance	2012	Incorporated as a task of the Fresno Green Development Code, General Plan Update and Master Environmental Impact Report Program (see status in 1.1.1 above).
Implementation of General Plan 1.1.1.c	Adopt land use plan for SEGA	2013	The SEGA administrative draft plan is complete and it is anticipated that aspects of this plan will be incorporated into the General Plan update to be completed by July 2013.
One Stop Shop Processing 1.1.2	Implementation DPC	Aug. 2008	Long range and current planning functions continue to be constrained by budget reduction. However, pre-application review is being incorporated into the project processing in order to streamline application review and approval.
Reduce Housing Costs 1.1.3	Assist LIHTC Applications	Ongoing	There were five Low Income Housing Tax Credit applications received during the 2012 report period. One project, the Bridges at Florence, received $5.6 million in LIHTC.
Institutional Barriers 1.1.4	Monitor institutional barriers and advise on the findings and develop maximum densities	Ongoing	There were no institutional barriers identified during the 2012 report period.
Complaint Referral 1.1.5	Contract with FHCCC for compliance and dissemination of information	Ongoing	The FHCCC received over 800 complaints during the 2012 plan period. Of the 800 complaints, 389 cases were located in Fresno and 197 were referred for further investigation. Additionally, literature was distrubuted to over 35 community agencies and schools.
