

1.0 OVERVIEW: QUANTIFIED OBJECTIVES

California Housing Element Law requires jurisdictions to estimate the number of affordable housing opportunities that will be created over the five-year planning period. The City has two sets of numerical housing goals; the City's share of the SANDAG Regional Housing Needs Assessment (regional share goals) and the Quantified Objectives for Affordable Housing Production. The total regional share goal is to provide adequate land resources to accommodate approximately 11,300 new housing units, 6,550 of which are for low- and very low-income households. To determine the adequacy of land for very low- and low-income households, the City must demonstrate the availability of land zoned for 30 dwelling units per acre or greater. The analysis of adequacy of available land resources is provided in Appendix C of the Housing Element.

This total housing need is greater than the City has available resources to facilitate. Therefore, the City establishes a quantified objective for the actual creation of affordable housing opportunities and the provision of other housing assistance.

2.0 QUANTIFIED OBJECTIVES

Part II of the Housing Element outlines policies and programs that range from the new construction of housing, rehabilitating housing, and other housing assistance programs such as rental assistance, homebuyer assistance, and homeless services. These programs and policies are categorized into two levels of priorities:

- Level 1 Priorities are those that the City is dedicated to addressing within the five years with the expected resources.
- Level 2 Priorities are those that the City acknowledges as important to address should resources allow.

Many programs and policies reduce barriers and create opportunities for a balanced community. These goals are essential to meeting the City's housing needs, but are more qualitative in general. The quantified objectives adopted by the City of Chula Vista are based upon the Level 1 goals, policies and programs outlined within the City's Plan of Action, as outlined in Part II. The City reasonably expects that a total of 5,171 households will be assisted, as summarized in Table III-1 below. A more detailed summary of the specific programs and the associated priority level and quantified objective is provided in Appendix E.

Table III-1 Summary of Objectives 2005-2010
Activity	Very-Low	Low	Moderate	TOTAL By Activity

Code Enforcement (rental)

If additional resources become available, the City reasonably expects that up to an additional 1,680 households will be assisted. These quantified objectives were derived from the Level 2 goals, policies and programs outlined within the City's Plan of Action, Part II of the Housing Element.

Additionally, there are housing programs and services available to Chula Vista residents that the City does not administer. For example, approximately 2,500 Chula Vista residents receive Section 8 rental assistance through the County of San Diego. These households pay an affordable rental rate while residing in market rate rental housing. These types of programs and services were not included in the City's Plan of Action or the quantified objectives, as the City does not directly provide support.
