Jurisdictions with insufficient progress toward Lower RHNA (Very Low and Low income) are subject to SB 423 SMAP provisions for developments with 50% affordability or above.

Please note, pursuant to SB 423 (Chapter 778, Statutes of 2023), any jurisdiction that did not adopt a housing element that has been found in substantial compliance with housing element law are subject to streamlined ministerial approval for qualifying proposed developments with at least 10% affordability. As such, additional jurisdictions may be required to provide streamlined ministerial approval if they have not adopted a housing element that has been found in compliance by HCD. To confirm housing element compliance, visit the Housing Element Compliance Report.

Cities and Counties Subject to SB 423 SMAP Provisions When Proposed Developments Include ≥ 50% Affordability

These 238 jurisdictions have insufficient progress toward their Lower income RHNA (Very-Low and Low income) and are therefore subject to the SB 423 SMAP for proposed developments with at least 50% affordability. If the jurisdiction also has insufficient progress toward their Above Moderate income RHNA, then they are subject to the more inclusive streamlining for developments with at least 10% affordability.

Please note, pursuant to SB 423 (Chapter 778, Statutes of 2023), any jurisdiction that did not adopt a housing element that has been found in substantial compliance with housing element law are subject to streamlined ministerial approval for qualifying proposed developments with at least 10% affordability. As such, these jurisdictions may be required to provide streamlined ministerial approval if they have not adopted a housing element that has been found in compliance by HCD. To confirm housing element compliance, visit the Housing Element Compliance Report.
